

Dr. Charles B. NIWAGABA holds BSc. Civil Engineering and MSc. Engineering (Environmental) from Makerere University, a Licentiate of Philosophy (Ph.Lic.) in Environmental Engineering from the Swedish University of Agricultural Sciences in Uppsala, Sweden and Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) that was done in a sandwich programme between Makerere University, Kampala, Uganda and the Swedish University of Agricultural Sciences (SLU). Dr. Charles B. NIWAGABA is a lecturer in the Department of Civil Engineering, Faculty of Technology, Makerere University, Kampala, Uganda. He teaches in the field of Public Health and Environmental Engineering. In particular, Dr. Charles B. NIWAGABA has expertise in water supply, wastewater and excreta management, environmental impact assessments, ecological sanitation and solid waste management. Dr. Charles B. NIWAGABA is a registered Environmental Impact Assessment Practitioner by the National Environment Management Authority (NEMA) of Uganda. Dr. Charles B. NIWAGABA is a member of the Environmental and Water Resources Institute (EWRI) of the American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE) and he is also member of the International Waste Working Group (IWWG). Dr. Charles B. NIWAGABA is widely traveled, has over 25 publications in conference proceedings and refereed journals.