

Receiving her Master of Science in Biology/Neurosciences Degree

January 27, 2022 |

Melissa von Wyl did her Master's Thesis entitled "Influence of Insecticides on the Developing Nervous System of Zebrafish Larvae" in the Molecular Toxicology group in the Department of Environmental Toxicology and successfully passed the oral and written examination at the University of Zurich.

For this great achievement she is now awarded the Master of Science degree by the University of Zurich. Congratulations, Melissa!
