Utox Winter excursion

February 7, 2023 |

After a 3-year hiatus, Utox finally resurrected its cherished tradition of the winter excursion, spending two days at Flumserberg to do some winter sports, hiking, and celebrating the team spirit over shared fondue.

The last multi-day excursion was in late 2019 and had to be paused throughout the height of the Coronavirus pandemic. Everyone was happy to get some well-deserved mountain-time with the co-workers with some outdoor-activities. For some it was even the first opportunity to stand on skis in their life! We are looking forward to doing this again regularly and to our next scheduled mutual getaway in July for the Utox retreat.
