

Part 1 – Using Diagnostics

1.6 Gender in inclusive sanitation

Inclusive urban sanitation - Capacity development for consultants

-  Understand what gender is, and why is it important
-  Discern the sanitation challenges in terms of gender
-  Know how to apply a gender-sensitive approach

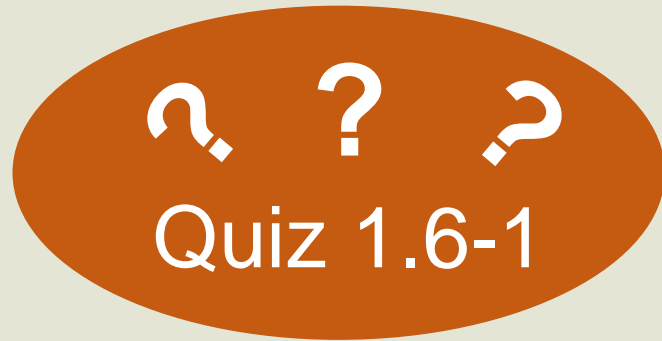

We'll be watching a video as the main input in this session

Gender in Inclusive Urban Sanitation

Inclusive urban sanitation – Capacity development for consultants

Pauline Cherunya and Vasco Schelbert

Quiz: Applying gender sensitives approaches: 2

Of these three options, which is the best way of incorporating gender in an Inclusive Urban Sanitation program:

- a. Ensuring women make the final decisions about water and sanitation services
- b. Your program design fully conforms to the gender policy of your client
- c. Considering the views of women and men to ensure the program design enables equal access to services

2 mins

Quiz: Applying gender sensitives approaches: 1

Quiz 1.6-2

What are some examples of how you might apply gender-sensitive approaches in these steps of a typical urban inclusive sanitation project?

1. Design of public toilets
2. Promotion and marketing of a new sanitation service
3. Supporting capacity building of entrepreneurs

4 mins

