

Tool 6.1 – Overview of Self-management

Table T 6.1 A: Overview of self-management

Who are the actors, both within and outside the community, involved in the current system of self-management, and what roles do they play? ☐ Community leaders ☐ Community groups ☐ Informal waste pickers ☐ Social enterprise ☐ Cooperative ☐ Private business ☐ Municipality ☐ Humanitarian responders ☐ Other: _____
Is there a group in place responsible for overseeing SWM in the community? ☐ Yes ☐ No
Is there evidence of improper waste management practices? ☐ Dumping and littering ☐ Waste burning, smoke or ashes ☐ Other: _____
What appropriate self-management practices are in place? ☐ Reduction ☐ Reuse ☐ Separation at source, specify waste streams: _____ ☐ Collection system ☐ Recyclables recovery ☐ Organics recovery ☐ Designated waste disposal (waste pits or community disposal site)
Are any rules or guidelines in place for how residents should manage their waste? ☐ Yes ☐ No
Is anyone responsible for overseeing and supporting the community with their practices? ☐ Yes, specify who and how: _____ ☐ No
Are there relevant laws, policies, regulations, plans and strategies for SWM that apply for self-management? ☐ National level: _____ ☐ Local level: _____ ☐ Institutional level: _____