

Eawag Seminar Series

Fall Semester 2019

«Distinguished Lecturer Series»

When Where

Fridays, 11.00 to 12.00am

Forum Chriesbach (FC), room C20, Eawag Dübendorf

September 20

Systems-Based Approaches to Predict Chemical Hazard

Dr. Natàlia Garcia-Reyero Vinas, US Army Engineer Research and Development Center, Environmental Laboratory, Vicksburg, MS, USA

September 27

Using Science to Influence International Water Policy

Prof. em. Jamie Bartram, University of North Carolina, USA

October 4

Tuning MOF Structures to Achieve High Performance in Liquid-Based Separations

Prof. Wendy Queen, EPFL, Switzerland

October 11

How Does Intraspecific Variation Influence Persistence and Coexistence of Populations?

Prof. David Vasseur, Yale University, USA

October 18

A Path Towards Sustainable Use of Overpumped Aquifers

Prof. em. Wolfgang Kinzelbach, ETH Zürich, Switzerland

October 25

A Complex Adaptive Systems Perspective on Sustainability: Limits to Governability and Management

Prof. Jon Norberg, Stockholm Resilience Centre, Sweden

November 1

Actionable Knowledge and the Art of Engagement

Prof. Maria Lemos, University of Michigan, USA

November 8

Governing the Transformation of Water Governance Towards More Sustainability

Prof. Dr. Claudia Pahl-Wostl, University Osnabrück, Germany

November 15

TBA

Prof. Bruno Oberle, EPFL, Switzerland

November 22

The Role of Leadership in Corporate Greening

Prof. Judith Walls, University of St. Gallen, Switzerland

December 6

TBA

Dr. Ingrid Chorus, German Federal Environmental Agency, Germany